Our last show in East Liverpool was a very beautiful one. ELDS never missed putting on a show for 92 years. The faithful members and exhibitors always came. So as we say goodbye, I would like to thank those members and exhibitors who came in support of the East Liverpool Dahlia Society. Hope to see you at shows around the country.

This year's Heirloom Expo had three strikes against it: it took place during the week on the Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday after Labor Day; the San Francisco Bay Area had historic record-setting heat blow torching the dahlias; and the National Show in Chicago began the day the show closed. Some would even posit that people think they have to swim the gap the Golden Gate Bridge spans, because they are so reluctant to venture north. Nevertheless, over 700 remarkable specimens delighted over 15,000 visitors. The competition was held in such a huge building that Deborah drove her element right to the set up table to debouch her 20 cases of vases. Under a Halloween orange full moon growers arrived and set up all night long. The public ultimately chose Kristine Albrecht's jaunty Ketchup and Mustard for the $50 People's Choice. The three societies of northern California thank Jere Gettel for sponsoring $2,000 in prize money, the lovely ribbons and the entire Heirloom Expo.
