

Synopsis of Bylaw Revisions – May 28, 2022

Article II – Membership

Section 1 – Broaden the scope of who is eligible for membership in the ADS to include businesses.

Section 2 – Define the rights of the members (the same language as before, just in a separate section). Added “at the Annual Meeting” to the end of sentence. This is not addressed elsewhere in the Bylaws.

Added Section 3 – Eliminate Members-at-Large so there is only Individual and Household memberships. The term “Household” was used instead of “Family” due to the societal acceptance of alternative living situations. Clauses 3, 4, 5 and have been revised due to the elimination of the Members-At-Large. There are other minor revisions to make the language in each clause consistent with each other.

Clause 7 Overseas Associates – moved to a separate Article IV as they do not have full rights of membership in the Society.

The remaining articles in the Bylaws will be renumbered in the final approved draft of the updated Bylaws.

Article IV – Life Memberships and Gifts

Section 2, Clause 4 – changed “Trust Units” to designated funds. This seems to provide greater flexibility on how these gifts are setup and managed.

Article V – Affiliated and Participating Societies

Section 1 – Change the language of who is eligible to be an Affiliated Society to make it consistent with the Participating Societies, Section 2, Clause 1

Section 2, Clause 2 – change Participating members to Individual or Household.

Article VII – Duties of Officers

Section 5, Clause 1 – revised the language to allow the posting of meeting minutes on the ADS website at the discretion of the Executive Board.

Article VIII – Trustees

Section 2 – Revised term of the Trustees to six years to make is easier to stagger their terms.

Article IX – Executive Board and the Standing Committee

Section 1, Clause 2 - Add three members to the Executive Board including:

Bulletin Advertising Manager
ADS Store Manager
Social Media Chair

These positions are critical to the operation of the ADS and it provides additional opportunities for individuals to join the Executive Board.

Section 3A – Change “National Exhibition” to “National Show”. Make changes throughout the Bylaws to reflect the change in title

Section 3C Publications – Added language regarding the setting of publication prices

Section 3D Trial Garden – change the reporting of the trial garden results to a subsequent issue of the Bulletin

Section 3H Seedling Bench Evaluation – change the reporting of the seedling bench evaluation results to a subsequent issue of the Bulletin

Section 3N – Insurance – revised the language to make it consistent with current practices

Section 3Q Technology Resources – redefine the duties and responsibilities of the Chair

Section 3S Web Site – Added one position to the committee:

Clause 1 – ADS Store Manager – new position

Added Section 3T Social Media – New committee.

Article X – ADS Outreach Officials

Section 2. Vice Presidents at Large – eliminate this group of individuals. The number of members on the Executive Board has increased over time resulting in a group of individuals which can adequately represents the ADS and its members.

Article XII – Bulletin

Section 1 – eliminated “quarterly” to allow greater flexibility for the Executive Board to set the schedule for issuing the Bulletin.

Added Section 4 – Bulletin Advertising Manager – new position.

Article XV – Amendments – revised the language to allow Bylaw amendments to be posted on the ADS website at least 60 days prior to the annual meeting.

Brad Freeman, President
American Dahlia Society