

The American Dahlia Society

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2022 Derrill Hart Medal

The American Dahlia Society (ADS) has announced the winners of the 2022 Derrill Hart Medal, honoring the top scoring new introductions evaluated in ADS sponsored trial gardens throughout North America:

Top row, left to right:

- Grandpa's Gift, a large lacinated informal decorative (A-ID-V), hybridized by Nicholas Gitts of Canby, Oregon.
- Allen's Diablo, a medium sized red semi cactus type (B-SC-R), hybridized by Allen Manuel of Canby, Oregon.
- Connie Dohuahua, a small yellow incurve cactus type (BB-IC-Y), hybridized by Connie Young-Davis of Victoria, British Columbia.

Bottom row, left to right

- Allen's Alley Cat, a miniature, orange formal decorative (M-FD-OR), hybridized by Allen Manuel of Canby Oregon.
- Hollyhill Leticia, a purple waterlily type (WL-PR), hybridized by Margaret and Ted Kennedy of Oregon City, Oregon.
- Clearview Pataha, a bronze stellar type (ST-BR), hybridized by Richard Parshall of Snohomish, Washington.

Contact:

Larry Smith, ADS Publicity/PR Chair
The American Dahlia Society
PublicRelations@dahlia.org